DISCRIMINATING LADIES.

Enjoy Using Herpicide on Account of Its Distinctiveness.

The ladies who have used Newbro's Herpicide speak of it in the highest terms, for its quick effect in cleansing the scalp of dandruff and also for its excellence as a general hair-dressing. It makes the scalp feel fresh and it allays that itching which dandruff will cause. Newbro's Herpicide effectively cures dandruff, as it destroys the germ that causes it. The same germ causes hair to fall out, and later baldness; in killing it, Herpicide stops falling hair and prevents baldness. It is also an ideal hair dressing, for it lends an aristocratic charm to the hair that is quite distinctive. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Six Bulgarians Murdered.

As was stated in the Gazette, six murdered Bulgarian laborers were found yesterday in an old house at 245 Tenth avenue south, Minneapolis, Minn., and the police are uncertain how or when the murders were committed, although the evidence thus far secured indicates that the men were killed during a fight among 12 Bulgarians, who had rented the house.

The police are convinced that robbery was not the cause of all the murders, as considerable money was found on the bodies. They also scout the idea of any secret society with motives of revenge.

Four of the bodies, horribly cut and slashed with knives, were found in a room on the second floor, while in the cellar were two others with their throats cut. Near the bodies were found five large bowie knives and a hatchet.

J. Micklenberg, a drayman, says that Monday afternoon six men asked him to take six packages from the house at 245 Tenth avenue south to the Union Station. On arriving at the house he found there were 12 packages, and after some haggling about the price he took them to the station.

A young man rode on the wagon, while the other five men walked. The man who rode said the party was going to Duluth. At the station he noticed that the men from the house were joined by several other men, a woman and a little girl. From this statement the police believe that the murders were committed some time between midnight Sunday and Monday morning.

S. Magnuson, owner of the house, says that an Italian rented part of the house of him four months ago, paying four months' rent in advance, the house to be used by 12 railroad laborers, of whom he was foreman. The 12 men moved in and lived quietly, working every day. The men lived, slept and ate their meals in the rooms on the second floor. The Italian foreman was never seen again by Magnuson.

Yesterday morning an old German who occupied the first floor of the house told Magnuson that a fight had occurred in the upper rooms Sunday night. The German said he had paid little attention to the fight until he noticed that the occupants of the second floor had gone. After informing Magnuson of the fight, the German disappeared.

Magnuson informed the police that a murder had probably been committed in the house, and the police broke into the Bulgarians' lodgings. The two bodies in the basement, according to Coroner Kistler, had been dead nearly two days. Those in the upper rooms appeared to have been killed more recently.

The police say that the men found in the basement may have been murdered for their money, and that a fight followed upstairs over a division of the spoils. The bodies found upstairs were slashed all over, especially about the face and the throat.

One man had fallen against a hot stove and the right side of his face was burned off. Beside this man lay the bloody hatchet. Near the bodies found upstairs were two money belts, containing $506 in gold. On one of the bodies was found a watch that was still going. Some of the bodies had been stripped.

Aside from the foregoing facts the police have no information on which to work, although many unverified rumors are under investigation.

In two satchels found in the house was a regalia, consisting of caps, robes and handkerchiefs, containing characters and emblems which it is thought may have belonged to an order of the Greek Church. There were also several religious emblems and a biscuit with emblems on one side and a picture of a saint on the other. There were two sets of linen, robes and caps, on which sacred pictures were crudely printed.

High License in Ohio.

It is estimated that between 10,000 and 15,000 men may be thrown out of employment by the enforcement of the Aiken liquor tax law, which raises the cost of the license from $350 to $1,000, passed Tuesday by the Ohio legislature, according to one authority. The 5,000 proprietors of the saloons that will close will be out of employment. At least half of them have barkeepers, making 2,500 more. Many porters and men who get up saloon lunches will lose their places. Brewery drivers and other workers at breweries will also suffer.

Representative Aiken estimates that the gain in the State revenue will be about $3,450,000, three-tenths of which goes to the State.

Among the saloons in Ohio that it is estimated will close, 1,974 are distributed as follows: Cincinnati, 400; Cleveland, 400; Columbus, 350; Toledo, 375; Springfield, 70; Dayton, 200; Youngstown, 180; Hamilton, 105; Zanesville, 75; Canton, 100; Akron, 75; Norwalk, 12; Lima, 18; Piqua, 14.

The State Auditor's statement as to the Dow liquor law collections for January, 1906, the last under the $350 license, shows the following comparison with the last preceding collection: Number of saloons in Ohio July, 1905, 12,934; general revenue in State 1905 (whole year), $1,296,582; number of saloons January, 1906, 13,009.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

THURSDAY EVENING, MAR. 29, 1906.

TWO JOINT resolutions have been passed this week by Congress which will put a wholesome check on extravagances in public printing. They end two special abuses in the preparation and distribution of documents ordered by the two houses or charged to their account on the public printer's ledgers. One of these was the reckless overissue of publications which could not be forced into circulation. The government is actually renting three buildings for $13,600 a year for the sole purpose of storing dead documentary matter, and the committee says that 400 freight cars would not be enough to carry the accumulated surplus out of Washington. The remedy suggested for the evil of overproduction is simple and rational. It directs the printing of all documents in two or more editions, so that the supply can be adjusted to the actual demand. This will mean on the average publication a saving from forty to fifty per cent. The second abuse corrected was that of charging to Congress expensive departmental work for which it was in no way responsible. Under the old system the cost of printing all reports made to Congress was met out of the congressional printing fund. The departments expanded their reports and filled them with illustrated matter, which they wanted to use subsequently for other purposes, and so shifted the original expense from their own shoulders. One department's printing bill in 1904-05 was on the face of the record $207,988, but the actual cost of the work done for it was $654,914. Congress had to assume 70 per cent of this department's printing charges. The legislation just passed provides that the departments shall be charged with the costs of the printing which they originate, Congress paying only for such copies of any report as the two houses actually receive and circulate. This rearrangement will compel the departments to reduce their printing expenses and will help greatly to discourage useless and extravagant printing ventures. In the last fiscal year the government's outlay for publication purposes was $7,133,000. With the reforms just enacted and others which are to be effected in the executive departments and the printing office itself the annual charge should fall within a few years to $6,000,000 or even $5,000,000.

IT SEEMS that students in other places as well as Annapolis need attention from their superiors or the civil authorities. Several score of sophomores of Lehigh, Pa., University early this morning virtually wrecked a Lehigh Valley transit trolley car. The sophomores last evening held their annual banquet at Broadhead station, four miles from Bethlehem, and the trouble occurred while they were on their way home. As the car came to a stop to let them board it, the students, many of them in their cups, it is said, started to hurl rocks. The conductor and motorman were soon overpowered and the students then proceeded to raise high jinks. Many extra fares were rung up, all the inside furniture wrecked, and car windows broken and the roof of the car damaged beyond repair. Another car that passed along was only saved from similar treatment by quick action on the part of the motorman. The trolley officials are considering the advisability of arresting the whole class. The university authorities, besides ordering the class to pay the cost of their fun, will meet out more severe punishment. The police have arrested several of the disorderly students.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT yesterday, as stated in the Gazette of that day, reappointed for a third term Henry B. F. Macfarland Commissioner for the District of Columbia. The President summoned the Commissioner to the White House and warmly commended him upon his efficient service in the past, stating that he desired to give him another term in recognition of the good work which he had done during the six years that he had held the office. The reappointment was without Commissioner Macfarland's solicitation and was made several weeks before the expiration of his present term, as was his reappointment to a second term three years ago. Commissioner Macfarland is a native of Philadelphia and for years was the Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Record. He is thoroughly qualified for the position, as his past six years' services have amply proven.

THE REPORT of the United States Steel Corporation for 1905 shows an increase of over $46,000,000 in net earnings, or a total of nearly $120,000,000. The total undivided surplus on December 31 was $84,738,450. The gross receipts reached the vast total of $585,331,736. There was decided improvement in the export trade, both as to quantity and price. In defense of the practice of selling to foreign customers at lower prices than those prevailing at home, the report says that in this way surplus stocks are disposed of, thus preventing increase in cost of production and the shutting down of works. The number of employes increased to 180,158. During the year 12,256 employes subscribed for 23,989 shares of preferred stock at par. This is one of the "infant industries," which the people are taxed out of all reason to support.

From Washington.

Mrs. Roosevelt, accompanied by her younger children, Ethel, Archie and Quentin, and two or three of the household retainers and maids, left at 10:50 a. m., for Fernandina, Florida, where they will board the Mayflower for a short trip to Cuban waters. The Mayflower was ordered south several days ago, and, according to advices received at the Navy Department, is now awaiting Mrs. Roosevelt and her little party off the Florida coast. It is not likely that Mrs. Roosevelt will spend more than two or three days in Cuba, and will limit her journeyings there to short excursions about Havana and its suburbs under the escort of the American Minister. It is Mrs. Roosevelt's desire to visit Havana entirely without ceremony and she will go there officially incognita—that is, the Cuban government will have no formal knowledge of her presence, and all functions of an official character will therefore be barred. It will be rather difficult, however, for her to entirely escape the cordial hospitality of the Havana dignitaries, and it is more than probable that receptions and dinners of more or less brilliance will be planned and perhaps carried out in spite of the implied request that nothing of the sort be undertaken in Mrs. Roosevelt's honor. Mrs. Roosevelt will return to Washington in about ten or twelve days.

The powerful battleship which it is believed Congress will authorize this session will probably be called the Delaware. Delaware is one of the three States now without an armored ship as her namesake, the other States being Utah and North Dakota. Senator Allee and Representative Burton called on Secretary Bonaparte today and pressed the claims of their State for the honor of having the biggest warship in the world named after her. They pointed out that Delaware was the first State in the union to ratify the constitution and deserved the plum. Secretary Bonaparte favors the idea. Rough drafts of the big ship's potentialities now give her 20,500 tons displacement, twelve inch rifles and a contract speed of 21 knots.

In view of the recent decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad coal cases, in which it was declared contrary to public policy for a common carrier to be a dealer in the commodities that it transports, the Interstate Commerce Commission today heard reargued the case of William Randolph Hearst against the Pennsylvania Railroad and others in regard to their dealing in coal. The complainant desires the commission to forbid the railroads from varying from their published rates by means of dealing in the purchase and sale of coal and apply for an injunction restraining interstate transportation in coal purchased under them.

Corporal James Tanner, Commander-in-Chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, has taken up the cudgel on be half of the superannuated clerks of the executive departments, many of whom are civil war veterans, whose positions are endangered by a provision in the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill. This provision reduces the salaries of those who are more than 65 years of age and will separate from the service in 1913 all who have reached the age of 70. In a communication to Representative James A. Tawney, of Minnesota, chairman of the appropriations committee, he calls attention to the fact that if this rule were to be applied to "those in high as well as low places, three members of your committee would have been debarred from signing it; the distinguished Speaker of the House would have to withhold his approval unless you hurry the bill through before May 7, and of the 13 members of the Senate committee on appropriations who have the last guess at this bill, whose average is 67, but all four, two democrats and two republicans, and they by a tight squeeze would be excused from consideration of your automatic 'time register' upon its arrival at the northern wing of the Capitol."

Plans for the third Pan-American conference are being proposed by the programme committee of which Lenor Nabuco, the Brazilian Ambassador, is the active head. When the draft of the programme is completed in the course of the next month, copies will be sent to the governments to be represented at Rio de Janerio next July so that the several foreign offices interested may advise with their delegates as to the treatment the several policies shall receive.

Senator Allee and Representative Burton of Delaware called at the White House today to speak for a battleship in behalf of their little State. They wish especially to have the proposed big battleship, which many believe should be called the Constitution, to bear the name of Delaware. "The government owes it to Delaware which was the first State to adopt the constitution" said Senator Alee. "To recognize her in the battleship roster. We do not object to the name Constitution for one of the big ships. In fact we think it is a very good idea, but we believe that Delaware should come first."

F. J. L. Brown, of Tampa, Florida, called at the White House this morning under the escort of Representative Sparkman, to urge the President to lend his aid to the exposition Tampa proposes to hold in the spring of 1908 to commemorate the building of the Panama canal. Mr. Brown said that all Tampa wanted was governmental recognition and was not looking for an appropriation. The President said that he would be glad to do anything in his power for the cause, but intimated that he thought the exposition business had been a little bit overdone.

Details received here of the election of governors for the provinces in the Philippines show that the nationalist party, which favors immediate independence, made substantial gains. The old federalists, which are inclined to leave to the good judgment of the Americans, won few victories, while the new federalists, allied with the nationalists, elected several governors.

It is said on reliable authority that Postmaster Merritt, of this city, will resign his position in order to accept an appointment as collector at Suspension Bridge and Niagara Falls, made vacant by the death of Major John Lowe.

Mrs. Broome, wife of Capt. Geo. C. Broome, formerly Miss Barber, of Washington, denies the report that a reconciliation has been effected with her husband.

Announcement was made at the White House today that W. C. Bristol, United States District Attorney at Portland, Ore., would be renominated. Mr. Bristol's nomination will be a vindication, for he has been under fire from several sources during the last few months and at one time it was confidently asserted by his enemies that he was slated for dismissal.

Crowds continue to visit Benning to see the races, which this season are very attractive. The weather during this week has not been all that might have been desired, but this did not keep many people away.

President Roosevelt received a call today from Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Kasper, of Chicago, who were introduced by Representative Boutell. Upon making the introductions Mr. Boutell said that Mrs. Kasper was the mother of fourteen children. "You are the very best American in this room," exclaimed the President, shaking both of Mrs. Kasper's hands.

The German Reichstag proposes to raise more revenue by taxing picture post cards sent through the mails one-half cent each. It is estimated that 500,000,000 are being sent annually, and this would produce a revenue of $2,500,000. It has been suggested that revenue be placed on picture post cards by the American officials.

Dr. John A. Houston, of Northampton, Massachusetts, who was struck by a car last night on his way to attend a dinner party at one of the hotels, is lying at the Emergency Hospital, suffering from concussion of the brain and a fracture at the base of the skull. His condition this morning is slightly improved, the doctors believing that he will recover. Dr. Houston was crossing a crowded thoroughfare and had gotten safely out of the way of a car when he was struck by one coming in the opposite direction. He is the manager of a private sanitarium in Northampton and was visiting friends here.

Some startling figures on the Chinese boycott were made before the House committee on foreign affairs today in connection with the hearing on the Foster bill, amending the Chinese exclusion laws, so as to exclude only coolies. Murray Warner, formerly a civil engineer in Chicago, now in general business in Shanghai, said that his business showed a steady increase up to September, 1905. Then it dropped to practically nothing. John Foord, secretary of the Asiatic Association, submitted a statement from the Standard Oil Company, showing that its exportations to China for the months of October, November and December, 1905, as compared with the corresponding period of the proceeding year, dropped from two million to 250,000 cases of oil. The business in the Shanghai district has been practically suspended.

News of the Day.

Secretary Charles J. Bonaparte has decided to accept the resignation of Midshipman Meriwether.

The House yesterday agreed to the conference asked for on the bill, to define and punish hazing at Annapolis.

The New York Senate committee on codes yesterday voted not to report the bill to make betting at racetracks a felony.

Premier Witte has received warning that he will be killed if he does not resign in one week, and various Cabinet changes at St. Petersburg are rumored.

The 5,000 shares of stock in the Washington Branch Railroad were sold at Annapolis, Maryland, yesterday by the Board of Public Works to the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company for $2,500,000.

Against the wishes of his mother, and being guided by his bride-to-be, R. M. Buck, the blind proprietor of a confectionery store at Renovo, Pa., stole away from home Sunday evening and went to Olean, N. Y., where he and Miss Jane Kepler, a clerk in his store, were married. The pair returned home. Mr Buck lost his eyesight several years ago in a mine explosion.

To get the body of Mrs. Johanna Worth, who weighed 400 pounds, out of her late home, in Wilmington, Del., part of the front of the building had to be torn out, on Saturday, delaying the funeral for an hour. When the bearers tried to carry out the casket it stuck in the front door. The windows were tried but without success. After an hour's hard work friends of the family, with picks, tore out enough bricks around the window to permit the huge casket to be lifted into the street, the extra force of bearers struggling hard under the weight.

A dispatch from Columbus, O., says that the improvement in the condition of Gov. Pattison continues, but he is still a desperately sick man.

Wm. H. MacDonald, of the famous Bostonians, died of pneumonia, in his apartments in the Nelson Hotel, Tuesday night, after a two days' illness.

Gag Put on the House.

Probably the most extraordinary departure from parliamentary practice Congress has known was made by the House of Representatives yesterday in order to preserve in the legislative appropriation bill features put there in disregard of the standing rules of the House and which changes the presiding officer had been compelled to rule out of order.

By a sweeping special rule reported from the committee on rules suspending the prohibitive rules of the House, the House was reduced from a parliamentary body to a temporary condition where it is subject to no rules and controlled only by the unbridled will of the appropriations committee. The special rule to suspend all rules relieved any proposition coming from the appropriations committee from being subject to a point of order, restored to the bill every item which, under the rules, had been declared out of order and gave to the committee the privilege of making a point of order against motions made by members of the House other than those of the committee.

The most radical action of Speaker Reed, when he revolutionized the parliamentary practice of the House, bound and gagged the minority and earned by his methods the appellation of "czar," never was such a departure from the forms of orderly procedure as was the action of yesterday. The temporary revocation of the rules was accomplished under party lash, in the face of as determined opposition from the democrats and some republicans as is possible under existing conditions in the House.

The rule was adopted after an illuminating debate of an hour by a vote of 169 to 109, 20 republicans voting with the minority.

The remainder of the day was devoted to consideration of the bill, and more progress was made than in all the days heretofore given to the measure.

Masonic Temple Destroyed.

Dover, N. H., Mar. 29.—The Masonic Temple on Central avenue, was destroyed by fire this morning, entailing a loss estimated at $200,000. The structure was the largest and finest in the city and was occupied on the ground floor by business firms and on the floors above by offices and lodging room. Twenty lodgers on the upper floors had narrow escapes.

Virginia News.

Mrs. Addie Ingle Butler, wife of George G. Butler, principal of the Fauquier Female Institute, died Tuesday night after an hour's illness. Mrs. Butler was 73 years of age.

Mr. Henry Hiden, jr., formerly of Orange county, recently of Birmingham, Ala., has been appointed to a position on the Quito and Guayaquil Railroad in Ecuador, which he has accepted and will be absent from the country for three years.

J. W. Morgan, proprietor of the big duck ranch, at Riverton has at present 20,000 ducklings on hand and has marketed 11,000 since January 1st. The output this year will exceed that of even last year and will over-reach the 60,000 mark.

Judge Letcher, presiding over the Circuit Court of Rockingham, has granted a temporary injunction, restraining Attorney George G. Herring, president of the Virginia Field Trials Association and a well-known sportsman, from maintaining on his premises in Harrisonburg a dog kennel, which is complained of as a nuisance.

Capt. E. W. Jones, formerly of the Seventy-first Virginia Volunteers, who was convicted of murdering Maude Robinson in Norfolk, whose throat he cut with a razor, and who was sentenced to serve 18 years' imprisonment, left Norfolk last night for the penitentiary at Richmond. He was handcuffed and chained to J. P. Hunter, who married in Norfolk a Newport News girl after he had married another at Alexandria. Hunter was sentenced to serve three years for bigamy.

Delegate Harry Houston, of Hampton, has little doubt that his bill appropriating $5,000 for a colored deaf and dumb asylum was doctored. The bill was introduced and passed the House with $15,000 appropriated, and then "passed the Senate with amendments" cutting the amount to $5,000. These words are indorsed on the original bill, and signed "Joseph Button, clerk," but the amendments are gone. He is going to systematically investigate the matter to his own satisfaction, but will not undertake to force an official investigation now, as the bill is dead by the leaving off of the $5,000 appropriation. Should the committee return to Richmond because of the fierce attack on their decision by Messrs. Sands, Puller and Shield, he will bring the matter to their attention.

Methodist Conferences.

The one hundred and twenty-second annual session of the Baltimore Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church began yesterday morning at Madison Avenue Church in Baltimore.

The first interesting event of the session was a unanimously-voted protest against the bill now before the legislature providing for the appropriation of $50,000 for the use of St. Mary's Industrial School.

Another important action of the body was the report of the committee on the proposed annexation of a portion of the Virginia Conference, including six charges in all. This committee, which was appointed at the last session of the Conference, advised that the six charges become a part of the Baltimore Conference.

It is expected that Bishop Wilson today will make official announcement of the annexation.

The business session of the conference, which convened yesterday, adjourned at noon today until tomorrow morning. The lecture this afternoon and the sermon tonight will be by Bishop Candler, of Atlanta, Ga., who has taken charge, owing to the illness of Bishop Wilson. Over 300 delegates are present. The session today was devoted to routine work. The next conference will probably be held at Harrisonburg, Va.

Bishop Alpheus W. Wilson, of Baltimore, though ill, called the one hundred and twenty-second annual session of the Baltimore Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church South, to order yesterday at Cumberland, Md.

F. Brook Whiting, city attorney, on behalf of Mayor King, welcomed the Conference to the city, which Rev. John S. Hutchinson, of Alexandria, presiding elder of the Washington District, responded.

The report of the committee on education was read, showing a very flattering condition of affairs. Since the last conference 32 new churches have been erected, an increase of 8 over the previous year, the new buildings costing $434,558, an increase of $198,058. The value of all real estate and building is $8,287,999, an increase of $1,153,763. The amount invested in improvements, exclusive of new buildings, was $196,735

The missionary report was read and accepted. It showed a foreign membership of 15,711, with 245 missionaries and 94 native assistants. The total expenditures were $326,245,99.

President Elder Armstrong during his report stated that his duties as an itinerant minister would now cease after 53 years of ministerial work, his retirement being due to old age and failing health. He is writing a history of the church.

Various presiding elders made reports. Among them, Rev. John S. Hutchinson of Alexandria, presiding elder of the Washington district, who reported 802 accessions to membership; 146 adult baptisms, 158 infant baptisms; $3,799 contributed to foreign missions; $2,416 to home missions, and $15,144 for building churches and parsonages.

Bishop Warren Candler, of Atlanta, Ga., arrived during the day and will likely preside over the conference as Bishop Wilson is still suffering from a severe cold.

Letter to Thos. W. White,

Alexandria, Virginia.

Dear Sir: Mr. H H Stephenson, Cashier of Oil City (Pa) Savings Bank, writes: "Nine years ago I painted my house with your paint. It wore so well, I want to use it again."

There's nothing wonderful except for the fact that the soft coal region of Pennsylvania is pretty hard on paint with its oil, smoke and grime. All we see in it is that Devoe is good for nine years sometimes. There are thousands of people that know it, and millions that don't.

There's the rub! We advertise for the millions; we want to make paint for the millions.

Mr Cashier, do you know that Devoe lead-and-zinc is twice as cheap as lead-and-oil, or mixed paints? Is 100 per cent a fair profit in your business?

Three-quarters of the people paint lead-and-oil mixed by hand; while the U S Government use lead, zinc and oil ground together by machinery—same as Devoe lead-and-zinc. The majority never is right about anything.

Yours truly

The Miners and Operators.

Indianapolis, Ind, March 29.—The United Mine Workers in a session of its own this morning took up the question whether to accept the proposition of T. L. Robbins to pay the 1903 scale if allowed to operate the Western Pennsylvania mines of the Pittsburg Coal Co. Robbins is the only big operator who has agreed to this advance. The miners' action is preliminary to the declaration of a strike and will determine whether the strike is to be confined to Ohio, Indiana, and Illinois coal fields, or include all the bituminous fields of the country.

"The finish will come today," said J. H. Winder, chairman of the operators, this morning. This statement is to be modified by the slight possibility indicated by the proposition of C. C. Hammond, an Illinois operator, that a commission be named by the miners to examine into the coal situation. Hammond and other speakers laid stress on the fact that the miners should base their demands for higher wages on the allegation that the operators are making big profits. The answer of President Mitchell to Hammond, attacking the railroads as owning the coal mines, is not taken as a favorable omen that the miners will seriously consider the Hammond proposition.

Mitchell's speech, which was the feature of yesterday afternoon's session, charged that many roads favor certain coal shipping companies. The Winder resolution, providing for the wage scale in effect two years ago, was voted down by the joint conference, which adjourned a three hours' session yesterday afternoon to meet again this afternoon and receive the answer to the Robbins's proposition

The miners in their separate session this morning endorsed the action of the joint scale committee. The miners adjourned to meet the operators this afternoon. The question of what to do with the Robbins proposition was not touched upon until after the motion to adjourn was made, when a delegate asked about it.

"Your endorsement of the action of your joint scale committee leaves that at the committee's discretion," said Mitchell in explanation. President Mitchell announced that there would be another meeting of the miners after the joint scale conference had finally adjourned.

President Mitchell announced a meeting of anthracite delegates tonight to discuss the anthracite scale and the reply of President Baer to the miners' demands.

New York, March 29.—The price of anthracite coal to the consumer in a number of places in Greater New York, especially in Brooklyn, has been increased from $6.50 to $7 per ton. Dealers boosted the price when they received an intimation from the operators that it would be best not to take contracts for delivery of coal after April 1 at present prices. Dealers construed this to mean that the prospect of an agreement between miners and operators was dubious and acted accordingly.

Altoona, Pa., March 39.—The Pennsylvania Railroad has begun to store coal in anticipation of a coal strike. All available cars are being loaded and run on to sidings where they are being held for further orders. No coal is being held for further orders. No coal is being unloaded for storage purposes however.

Entire Family Asphyxiated.

Philadelphia, March 29.—An entire family of foreigners consisting of Shaye Weisbein, aged 54 years, the father; Susanna Weisbein, aged 48, the mother; and three daugnters, Cecilia, 23 years; Sarah, 21 years; and Anna, 18 years; were overcome by gas this morning in their apartments on South street above 7th. Ignorance of the use of gas is said to have caused this wholesale asphyxiation. Weisbein, his wife, and one daughter, Anna, only arrived in this city on Tuesday last from Austria, having been brought to this country by their three other daughers, Anna, Cecilia and Sarah, who had been here for several years. Mrs. Weisbein and daughter, Anna, were given a rear room in which was a double gas burner for lightning and heating purposes. In their ignorance of the workings of the burners they turned on the wrong jet, allowing the gas to flow into their room. Mother and daughter then retired for the night and as they slept the deadly vapor soon overcame them They were discovered by the eldest daughter, Anna, who had fortunarely gone to to the house of a relative to sleep. She called at the South street house to arouse her parents and found them unconscious. Becoming hysterical, Mrs. Weisbein rushed from the house tearing her hair and shrieking for help. Several policemen rushed into the house and carried the unconscious forms into the street, where they were put into one patrol wagon and hurried to the hospital. Arriving at the institution it was found that Weisbein was dead and his body was taken to the morgue. The mother and three daughters are still unconscious and heroic measures have been adopted by the physicians in an effort to save their lives. There is little hope of saving the lives of Mrs. Weisbein and her daughters, Cecilia and Sarah. Anna, whose condition is not so serious, has a chance for her life, although she it still unconscious.

Fire in a Mine.

Linton, Ind., March 29.—The Clover Leaf mine, west of this city, caught fire in the bottom last night, from the explosion of a shell. The flames are raging and the prospects are that they will never be under control. The mine is new and has a steel tipple. There is no fire protection within ten miles. It is thought that all the miners escaped.

Securing Extra Policemen.

Norwich, Conn., March 29.—Charles E. Hazelhurst is endeavoring to secure a number of men to go to Indianapolis to perform police duty for the Erie Railroad while the miners strike, which, it is expected will begin Satuday is in progress. Mr. Hazelhurst who was formerly one of the Erie Road's detectives, received a message requesting that 100 men be secured and be held in readiness to start for Indianapolis at an hour's notice. Many men for this work were secured in this city and the remainder it is expected will be gathered at New London. The Erie road authorities anticipate trouble with the strikers and to protect their property in Indianapolis and that vicinity, men have been secured. The men expect about $60 per month.

Anti-American Movement.

Berlin, March 29.—The weekly review Der Deutsche says that it has received information that Chili is taking steps to organize the South American countries to oppose the pretensions of the United States to exercise predominant influence on the South American continent. Chile intends to take the lead in the anti-American movement to prevent the application of the Monroe doctrine. Der Deusche remarks that it is a significant fact that the Chilean army and navy have been organized according to German methods by German officers which render it particularly suitable and able to achieve this beneficial purpose. Der Deutsche dubs Chile the South American Prussia.

Sentence Postponed.

New York, March 29.—On the application of District Attorney Ely Justice Vernon M. Davis, sitting in the criminal bench of the Supreme Court, today, postponed imposing sentence upon Bertha Claiche, the slayer of Emil Gerdron, her task master. Sentence will be imposed on April 19, three weeks hence. The postponement was asked by the Assistant District Attorney as he desires more time in which to verify the statement made by the girl in which she is said to involve several police officials as having made a business of preying on habitues of Tenderloin resorts. Bertha Claiche was not in court this morning, but her mother and sister were there.

New Trans Atlantic Steamer.

Havre, France, March 29.—The official trial trip of the new French line steamer La Provence was held today and was successful in every way. The engines developed the contract speed and the vessel was very steady. La Provence is the latest addition to the trans-Atlantic fleet of the Compagnie Generale Traus-Atlantique and will start from Havre on her maiden trip to New York about the middle of April. La Provence has a tonnage of 19,160; is 620 feet in length, and 65 feet wide. She has two triple expansion and four cylinder engines and twenty one boilers developing 40,000 horse power and giving her a speed of 22½ knots.

Fire on a Steamboat.

New London, Conn., March 29.—The steamer Richard Peck arrived at this port last night on her trip from New York. The captain reported that on the trip to New York on Wednesday morning, a fire broke out on the starboard side and did considerable damage. The steamer left here on time Tuesday night. At 2 o'clock on Wednesday morning fire was discovered in the ladies toilet. An alarm was sounded and the crew rushed to quarters and the life boats manned. The passengers were aroused and all preparations made to leave the ship. The fire was confined to the ladies' toilet which was badly damaged. The fire was caused by defective insultation.

Suspects Arrested.

Duluth, Minn., March 29.—Six suspects have been arrested here in the Minneapolis sextette murder case. The arrested men say there were only six people in the house where the crime was committed when they left Monday afternoon. The leader of the party is Kaeman, the same man who rented the house. His wife is with him. Two small boys in the party are his son and nephew. Kaeman says that the Demetries were brought here. Two of the dead are believed to have been named Demetri.

Great Britain and Turkey.

Alexandria, Egypt, March 29.—Advices from Damascus state that the commander in chief of the fifth army corps, acting under instructions from Constantinople, has sent orders to the military authorities in Jerusalem to dispatch the regular guard to the Egyptain frontier, south of Gaza. The instructions are given in view of the strained relations existing between Great Britain and Turkey as the result of the Tabas incident caused by the refusal of Turkey to withdraw her troops from that town, which England claims is Egyptain territory.

Says Devil Makes Him Steal.

Bayonne, N. J., March 29.—Declaring he is under the spell of the devil, George Parker, 17 years old was arraigned yesterday before Recorder Lazarus. The boy's father declared he was unable to control him and that he had even sold his Sunday shoes for 15 cents. "I have tried very hard to be honest," the youth declared, when questioned by the court, "but the devil makes me steal, although I don't want to. I cannot resist his prompting and just cannot help stealing." The Recorder remanded the boy.

Battle in Algiers.

Paris, March 29.—A dispatch received from Algiers says a battle was fought recently between the troops of the sultan and the pretender. Neither side has gained an advantage and the soldiers remain facing each other awaiting an opportunity to renew the struggle.

Death of Justice Smith.

Patchogue, L. I., March 29.—State Supreme Court Justice Wilmot died here shortly before one o'clock this morning. He had been ill only ten days from a sudden affection of the kidneys. Mr. Smith was born in Smithtown, L. I., in 1852. For more than 200 years his ancestors lived in Long Island and his great-grandfather was a revolutionary soldier. Justice Smith was graduated from Cornell in the class of '74, studied law and in 1877 was admitted to the bar. He held the offices of district attorney of Suffolk county and county judge before he was elected to the Supreme Court bench. The justice was for many years a republican leader on Long Island.

New York Stock Market.

New York, March 29.—The upward movement in the stock market, which started last week, further progressed in the first hour today and prices for many issues scored material advances.

If you have used Witch Hazel Salve without being relieved it is probable that you got hold of one of the many worthless counterfeits that are sold on the reputation of the genuine DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve.

Arrest of Suspected Assassins.

Berlin, March 29.—The Tageblatt publishes a dispatch from Constantinople, which says that Res Pasha and Chamyl Pasha, two powerful dignitaries, have been arrested charged with the assassination of Radwin Pasha, perfect of the city, who was murdered recently while on his way from his country home to the city. It is alleged that they hired a poor Kurd to kill Radwin Pasha for $50. The assassin has now betrayed his employers in order to earn the $100 reward offered by the government as well as to secure a promise of immunity from punishment.

Mr. Storer's Recall.

Vienna, March 29.—Bellamy Storer, the United States Ambassador to Austria-Hungary, arrived here today from Egypt. In discussing his recall, Mr. Storer said his resignation was asked for on March 6, in a telegram from President Roosevelt, and was sent in March 7. He declined to discuss the reported grounds for his recall, or to speak of Mrs. Storer's activity in church matters. Mr. Storer said he would not resume charge at the American Embassy, but that Mr. Rives will continue in charge.

The Benning Race Track.

Washington, March 29.—There may be some excitement at the Benning track this afternoon if District Attorney Baker persists in his threat to arrest a bookmaker there and charge him with gambling. Mr. Baker thinks that under a recent decision of the Court of Appeals he can secure a conviction. In case the arrest is made, a test case will be made and a trial will follow immediately. Should Mr. Baker win out it will put the Benning race track out of business.

Alfonso Pardons Americans.

Madrid, March 29.—King Alfonso has pardoned the two American miners, Arthur Arnoldson and John Stoner, who were sentenced in 1898 to serve twenty years at hard labor in the Ceuta penitentiary for killing two Spaniards at Bilbao in a quarrel over the Spanish-American war. Subscriptions are now being taken up at Bilbao to supply the men with money.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Anthony Ceneky, aged 40, shot his wife and himself today at their home in Waterbury, Conn. Both are not expected to recover.

The bank of Victor, Colo., was entered last night the safe tapped, and $10,000 in new currency stolen. The robbery is flatly denied by officials of the bank.

Col. John T. McGraw, of Wheeling, W. Va., in a published interview calls upon Senator Elkins to resign. The interview has created a political sensation in Wheeling.

A dispatch received at the Maritime Exchange, in New York, today from Yokkachi, Japan, announced that the British ship Daylight, which caught fire in that port yesterday, would be a total loss. The Daylight, which was one of the largest sailing vessels afloat, was owned by the Standard Oil Company.

All immigration records were smashed today when 12,388 would be citizens from other shores landed in New York. This is the largest number of immigrats ever brought in to an American port in one day. Almost one half the entire number of immigrants are young girls seeking employment as servants.

A dispatch from St. Petersburg says that General Rodekamp has commuted the sentence imposed upon thirteen postal officials at Chita for participation in the postal and telegraph strike to penal servitude and exile.

Champion Liniment for Rheumatism

Chas. Drake, a mail carrier at Chapinville, Conn., says: "Chamberlain's Pain Balm is the champion of all liniments. The past year I was troubled a great deal with rheumatism in my shoulder. After trying several cures the storekeeper here recommended this remedy and it completely cured me." There is no use of anyone suffering from that painful ailment when this liniment can be obtained for a small sum. One application gives prompt relief and its continued use for a short time will produce a permanent cure. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F Creighton & Co.

President Roosevelt has declined an invitation to attend the Loudoun County Horse Show next summer.

Board of Education.

The second meeting of the State board of education was held in Richmond yesterday. All the members of the board were present. The first three hours of the session was taken up with the revision of the circular which will be sent to school superintendents throughout the State. This circular is for the instruction of the superintendents in regard to the management of the schools. A large amount of work was done in the revision of this circular, a number of small changes being made without changing the general trend of the text.

After the work on the circular, the question of electing school superintendents for the county of Alexandria and the city of Portsmouth arose. The county came first. There were two candidates for the superintendency of Alexandria county, both of whom had a strong backing—Basil D. Boteler and James E. Clements. After a long discussion a vote was taken and James E. Clements was elected by a good majority.

For the position in Portsmouth there were also two candidates—J. Leon Codd and J. C. Ashton. A second vote was taken and Mr. Ashton won by a large majority.

Dr Kent, Mr. Glass and Superintendent Eggleston were appointed a committee to select books for the traveling libraries for the public schools. They have $3,000 net at their disposal for the purchase of the books.

The board decided, if possible, to have seven summer institutes and will also continue the summer normal school at Charlottesville. One—and probably two—summer institutes will also be held for the colored teachers.

Escaped from Drowning.

Mr. A. B. Creech, a traveling salesman for the American Tobacco Company, whose home is in this city, narrowly escaped drowning in the swollen waters of Opequon creek, five miles east of Winchester, on the road to Millwood, Clarke county, on Tuesday. Mr. Creech had gone to Clarke county on business and was returning, accompanied by Mr. Allen Hollar, a young man of Winchester. Hardly had the two men attempted to ford the stream before their horse was swept off its feet by the force of the current and they were in water above their arm pits, with the horse swimming hard in midstream. The buggy containing the two men was swept forty feet down the creek, and finally caught in the roots of a tree. Mr. Hollar jumped on the horse's back just as the animal broke loose from the buggy and managed to reach the bank, leaving Mr. Creech hanging to the buggy. Mr. Hollar rode the horse back into the creek and after a struggle, rescued the traveling man.

The New Depot.

The feed wires which are to supply the new depot with electricity have been stretched from the power house at the union yards to the new structure. All appliances for lighting the depot were placed in position some time ago.

The new freight house southeast of the depot building has been furnished and six tracks laid near it. A substantial and neat fence now separates the passenger from the freight depot. The latter will, it is said, be put into use shortly.

During the past few weeks the Washington-Southern Railway has experienced considerable difficulty with the embankments near the culvert over Hooff's run and that over the electric railway tracks. Numerous landslides have occurred on the east side of the embankment where the tracks for the freight trains have been laid.

Potomac River Rising.

Rapid melting of deep snow in western Maryland and recent rains have caused a dangerous rise in the Potomac river, which, at Williamsport, last night, had overflowed its banks and flooded the lowlands. There has been a sudden rise of 10 feet and the river is still rising. Boatmen and shippers on the Chesapeake and Ohio canal are anxiously watching the rise and preparing for an emergency. Much ice is being carried down stream. Rivermen believe the rise will continue until today, when it may reach a height of 15 or 18 feet. At Hancock the river is rising rapidly. The Conococheague creek is badly swollen. The river in front of this city is filled with floating twigs, limbs, bark, &c., although the tide has as yet not made abnormally high.

Charters.

The State Corporation Commission has granted the following charters:

The Burdette Land, Lumber and Mining Co., Inc., of Alexandria. Incorporators—J. S. Flannery, president; Wm. Hitz, secretary and treasurer, both of Washington, D. C. Capital stock—Maximum, $100,000. Objects and purposes—To do a lumber and mining business, to deal in metals and minerals of all kinds, etc.

Washington Mechanics' Savings, Bank, Incorporated, Alexandria. Incorporators—Ezra Gould, president; E. S. Wolf, secretary and treasurer; both of Washington, D. C. Capital stock—Maximum, $50,000; minimum, $20,000. Objects and purposes. A general banking business.

Accused Dismissed.

Harrie Zimmerman was cited by Constable A. J. Payne to appear before Justice Triplett, of Fairfax county, yesterday to answer a charge preferred by Taylor Blunt, who alleged that Zimmerman was taking gravel from a bank belonging to him situated on the road leading from Gum Spring to Mount Vernon. The accused proved by witnesses that the gravel was given him by T. P. Ayers, who owns a gravel bank at the place. Zimmerman was dismissed and the costs of the case assessed against Blunt.

Charge Dismissed.

Mayor Paff this morning heard the complaint of Richard C. Burnett against Officer William Mayhugh. Burnett had alleged that the officer had acted disorderly toward him. The latter, however, charged Burnett with instigating the trouble by throwing out inuendoes and in other ways conducting himself in an offensive manner. The Mayor after hearing the accuser and the accused dismissed the charges against the officer.

Personal.

Mr. James E. Clements was yesterday unanimously elected, by the State Board of Education, Superintendent of Schools of Alexandria county, which position he has held with a short interregnum for many years. His election is very gratifying to his many friends in this city as well as in the county.

Mr. Robert N. Burgess, of Alexandria, is visiting friends in the city. Mrs. C. W. Turner, of Alexandria, who has been visiting Mrs S. J. Harris, returned home yesterday.—Charlottesville Progress.

Mr. Ernest Deahl enters upon his fourteenth year with the Morrison Paper Company, Washington, this week. His brother, Mr. Charles J. Deahl, has been with this firm for twenty-six years and, since its incorporation, one of its officers. The late Addison W. Deahl, father of these young gentlemen, made his headquarters with the Morrisons for more than two score years.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Seven young colored men, arrested by Officers Knight, Bell and Nicholson charged with vagrancy, were fined $2.50 each.

Two colored boys, arrested by Officer Knight for fighting in the street, were dismissed, their parents promising to correct them.

Sale of Water Stock.

Mr. S. H. Lunt, auctioneer, today sold for Messrs. Burke & Herbert ninety-five shares of the stock of the Alexandria Water Company. The first five shares sold at $125 per share, the next ten shares for $124; the next ten for $122.50; the next ten for $122; the next ten at $122.50, and the remaining 50 shares at $120 per share.

Sudden Death.

Mr. J. Edward McGraw, son of Mrs. Esther A. and the late J. E. McGraw, died suddenly at his home on King street, near Washington, late yesterday evening. The deceased was in the yard of his residence when he was taken ill and expired almost immediately. He was 48 years old.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

A marriage license was issued in Washington yesterday to Walter Sisson and Edith F. Swann, both of Alexandria.

An infant son of William and Ann Lucas died last night at its parents' residence on Pitt street, between Cameron and Queen.

M. Ruben & Sons have received the contract for furnishing the filing cases for the Virginia Safe Deposit and Trust Company, and are now putting them in position.

Mr. Lewis Duffy, one of the clerks of the Corporation Court, has the original minute book of the Sun Fire Company, organized in 1775. He found the book in Washington.

The remains of Charles F. Rotering, who died January 21, were interred today by Demaine & Son. The body had been held subject to orders from relatives of the deceased who live in a neighboring State.

An interesting meeting of the Modern Woodmen of America was held last night. One new member was elected and one application for membership received. At the next meeting a degree team from Washington will attend.

Little Willie Owens, who recently had his leg amputated at the Alexandria Hospital, is doing well. He was accidentally struck on the ankle by a small boy some time ago, which was said to be the cause of the trouble, but this is denied by those acquainted with the circumstances.

Fifty-ninth Congress.

SENATE.

The Senate today passed a bill appropriating $60,000 for three life saving stations and the building of a telephone line from the coast of Washington between Gray's Harbor and Cape Flattery; also requiring white lights on tows in navigable streams on the Great Lakes.

Mr. Culberson introduced a resolution passed by the Cattle Raisers Association of Texas, petitioning for the passage of the Hepburn railway rate bill in substantially its present form.

The railway rate bill was taken up and Mr. Clay of Georgia, took the floor to show there was very little difference between the Hepburn bill, which Mr. Knox declared to be unconstitutional, and the measure which the Senator from Pennsylvania introduced himself. Mr. Clay favored the incorporation in the measure of a judicial review provision.

HOUSE.

In the House today an agreement was reached to begin consideration of the pure food bill on Tuesday, April 10. At least two days of general debate are to be had on the measure.

The conference report on the bill reorganizing the consular service was agreed to.

The legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill was then considered in committee of the whole.

Explosion and Fire.

An explosion of benzine yesterday resulted in a fire which wiped out the main portion of the Roman Catholic Church of St. Francis Xavier in Philadelphia and destroyed the hat factory of Henry H. Roelofs & Co., at Twenty-fourth and Green streets, entailing an estimated loss of $50,000 on the factory and $100,000 on the church edifice, partly covered by insurance. The parochial residence and two dwellings near the church were damaged by flames and smoke. When the explosion occurred there were seventy-five children in the basement of the church, who had gathered to attend Lenten devotions. They escaped without injury. About 700 pupils who were in the parochial school, opposite the burning buildings, left the schoolhouse in order. Several hundred workmen in the hat factory also escaped. Three firemen were injured by the falling walls, but their injuries are not serious. The explosion occurred in the tarring-room of the Roelofs & Co. building. The force of the explosion blew the flames through the rear windows of the church and set fire to the interior woodwork. Rev. Thomas F. Shannon, rector of the church, is traveling in the South, and Rev. Edward Mellin and Rev. I. J. Fleming, the curates at the risk of their lives, saved the consecrated host and the sacred vessels. The roof and the interior of the church were destroyed, leaving only the walls and tower standing. The church edifice was built about three years ago.

Burning of a Gas Tank.

The burning of an immense gas tank of the public service coporation in Hoboken, N. J., yesterday afternoon drove hundreds of persons from their homes in the vicinity of the plant, set fifty girls working in a near-by strawhat factory in a panic, and sent a cloud of dense black smoke over New York for several hours. The tank, which contained over 4,000,000 cubic feet of gas, adjoined two other tanks of similar size. A fourth tank near by was filled with naptha. Working in constant peril of an explosion. Hoboken's entire fire department succeeded in keeping the adjoining tanks wetted while an employe of the company opened an emergency gate and drained the naptha tank, which had been the source of greatest danger. Householders and occupants of tenements within a radius of three blocks of the fire fire were sent from their homes, those who did not quit them voluntarily being driven out by the police. The fire in the big tank finally burned itself out, and the distorted sides of the holder collapsed. How the fire started is a mystery.

Former Mayor Van Wyck Weds.

Not one of the numerous surprises to New York city that has marked the public career of former Mayor Robert A. Van Wyck has ever approached the announcement, yesterday of his marriage to the divorced wife of John C. Hertle, Commissioner of Accounts. Coupled with the wedding is a report that Mr. and Mrs. Van Wyck will make their permanent home in Paris, where it is said, the former Mayor had purchased the celebrated residence of Dr. Evans, the American dentist, who assisted Empress Eugenie in making her escape from Paris to England. Mr. Van Wyck and Mrs Hertle were married on Monday night in the new Broadway Tabernacle by the pastor, the Rev. Charles E. Jefferson. So carefully was the wedding guarded by all concerned that nothing was known of it until the advertisement appeared yesterday. In the passenger list of the Kaiser Wilhelm II sailing Tuesday appeared the name of "Robert A. Van Wyck and valet," but not the name of Mrs. Van Wyck. In the last few years it is said that the former Mayor had amassed a fortune estimated at more than $5,000,000.

Virginia Republicans.

A dispatch from Norfolk, says: It developed here yesterday that republican State Chairman Bascom Slemp and all the other republican leaders in Virginia have given up all hope of electing republicans to the next Congress from any of the ten Virginia districts except the fifth and ninth. In these districts strong efforts will be made to elect republicans, and word has been sent from republican headquarters to the leaders in every district telling them that they will be expected to raise and contribute funds to be used in electing the republican candidates in the fifth district, formerly represented by Governor Swanson, and the ninth district, now represented by Colonel Campbell Slemp, the only republican in the Virginia delegation.

Saw Rescue in Mirage.

Witnessing a rescue at sea scores of miles away in a mirage is the unusual story told by the crew of the German sailing ship Sachren, which arrived at New York Tuesday after a long voyage from Hiogo, Japan. Not only were the smallest details of the rescue plainly outlined in the heavens, although the rescuing ship was invisible on the horizon, but a verification of the phenomenon was had the next morning when the craft shown in the mirage went sailing by the Sachren.

The mirage was seen in the Atlantic 3° south of the equator, an hour before sunset. Reflected as by a mirror, was a four-masted ship, close hauled on the starboard tack and headed southeast. The ship was a cloud of canvas to her trucks. She had painted ports and the crew of the Sachren aver that they saw even the white water which broke about her bow.

Suddenly the black sides of the unknown ship turned a brilliant red and the ship assumed an abnormal size. Three men were to be seen on the weather quarter of the mizzen topsail-yard. Suddenly one was seen to drop from the yard and strike the water with a splash.

Presently the spars were alive with men and it could be seen that they were taking in canvas and in a moment the ship wore around on the port tack and stood for about 15 minutes, when she again tacked to the starboard.

The ship of the mirage circled around twice and then came up in the wind. As clearly as though the unknown ship was but a mile away the men on the Sachren could see half a dozen men at the davits. Then the long-boat was observed floating alongside. Men entered the boat, which pulled away a considerable distance and stopped. The man in the bow then reached over, grabbed something in the water and pulled it aboard. The lifeboat then returned to the ship and was hoisted on board. Ten minutes later the rigging again was full of human mites making sail.

Everything was revealed so closely that the crew of the German ship imagined that it could hear the cries of the sailors on the ship as they tightened braces or pulled up halyards. As darkness came on the ship was seen to again stand on her course to the southeast.

Too Proud to be Mill Girl.

There is a scarcity of girls in West Chester, Pa., that is of a certain kind, and this caused the closing finally yesterday of the E. M. Rust knitting mill, which has been in operation for a short time with a small force. The place is abandoned and the machinery has been sold. The mill was well equipped with machinery and had a large number of orders, but the girls of the town would not take positions at the work, and others would not come there from other places. This caused the closing of the mill, which had the best of prospects in a business way, with the exception of securing operatives.

Can you believe you senses?

A Chicago Alderman Owes His Election to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"I can heartily and conscientiously recommend Chamberlain Cough Remedy for affections of the throat and lungs," says Hon. John Shenick, 220 So. Peoria St., Chicago. "Two years ago during a political campaign, I caught cold after being overheated, which irritated my throat and I was finally compelled to stop, as I could not speak aloud. In my extremity a friend advised me to use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I took two doses that afternoon and could not believe my senses when I found the next morning the inflammation had largely subsided. I took several does that day, kept right on talking through the campaign, and I thank this medicine that I won my seat in the Council." This remedy is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Labor Problem in Parliament.

The trade disputes bill, which is a direct outcome of the Taff Vale decision, which held that trades union funds are liable for the illegal acts of individual members of a union, was introduced in the British House of Commons yesterday by the Attorney General, Sir J. Lawson Walton. In explaining the features of the measure, he said that the recent court decisions had seriously curtailed the usefulness of trades unions. Their undoubted rights of peaceful persuasion had been cut down to the point of extinction, and funds contributed to provide against sickness and lack of employment had been held liable to meet claims based on the repudiated acts of unauthorized officials.

The present bill provides that no act of a trades union shall be held to be unlawful if such act is lawful when committed by an individual. It sets forth in express terms the right of peaceful picketing, which the Attorney General declared was an essential part of the right to strike, and defines the law of agency as applied to trades unions, making it impossible to claim redress from union funds for any act unless it is perfectly clear that the act was authorized by the governing body of the union.

In regard to the demands for the complete immunity of trades union funds from attack, the attorney general declared that he did not think it right to create a special privilege for the proletariat. If the bill did not fulfil the expectations of the trades unions, the government, at least, had done its best to solve the thorny problem.

This statement, which closed the attorney general's speech, was greeted with shouts of "No!" from the benches occupied by the labor party members of Parliament.

It speedily became evident that the government's measure was not at all to the liking of the labor members, who, before its introduction, declared their opposition to anything short of complete immunity for union funds.

In their opposition to the bill the labor members are supported by the Irish and many ministerial members, and unless the government measure extended so as to give union funds complete immunity from claims for damages arising from strikes, the labor member will tests the opinion of the House with a bill which they have prepared. The Irish will ask to have bill extended to include Irish farmers and others who are open to unfair treatment.

The bill, which was read for the first time yesterday, will be fought on its second reading in committee.

The Insurance Commissioner.

A contention has been raised in Richmond that the legislature arrogated too much authority to itself in electing the Insurance Commissioner, that he is one of the officers of the Corporation Commission, and that under the Constitution should have been named by that body.

The legislature created the office of Railroad Commissioner with salary of $3,500 and power to appoint an assistant at $2,000, but made the Insurance Department an annex of the Corporation Commission and appointing Col. Joseph Button Insurance Commissioner.

The Constitution states that the Corporation Commission shall appoint all its officers, assistants and subordinates. The contention is that the subordinates of the Corporation Commission, the Insurance Commissioner and his clerk should be appointed by the Commission.

It is suggested that the question might be raised in two ways; by the Commission or by insurance companies. A closer perusal of the bill may show that the point is well covered by the bill creating the Insurance Department.

Nothing More Delicious

than that WHITE CLOVER HONEY we are offering you. It is the clearest and best ever sold on this market and would bring fancy prices elsewhere. We have a few pounds left and are going to sacrifice it right here at home at 15c a pound section. Order quick.

It's a genuine pleasure to see how many of those FAT PRUNES we send out in a day. Price still the same—4 pounds for a quarter.

Josh Billings said, "If you have to go out before breakfast, eat your breakfast first." If he were here today he would add "At least drink a strong cup of Yates's Bourbon Coffee." It's the right thing in the right place and invigorates the system like no other Coffee.
